

My name is Natalie Bertsch and I am a Senior this year. I am in journalism because I love writing and hope to pursue a career in mass communications. I am a part of National Honor Society, Quill and Scroll, and the yearbook committee. I enjoy being a student at Lakewood Ranch High School because I am able to learn with my closest friends. My biggest goal this year is to get into University of Florida or Florida State where I will continue my education.