

My name is Sarah Watts, and I am a junior here at the ranch. I am in journalism because I enjoy writing and interacting with people around my school. I enjoy going to LRHS because there are a lot of amazing teachers and a lot of opportunities through clubs and activities. I want to improve my writing this year and broaden the types topics or stories I write about. Outside of school, I play the piano and make YouTube videos.