

Hi my name is Jessica Husel and I'm a sophomore at Lakewood Ranch High School. I joined journalism because I really like the class and who the process of writing a story goes. Mr. Honsa is one of the coolest teachers in this school and the way he teaches this class made me want to come back to journalism. Writing is something to calm me down and relax me and I'm glad that I'm back in this class.