

My name is Jade Edmonds and I am a Junior. I am in journalism because I like to write stories. My extracurricular activities include riding and playing with my horses. I am a competitive jumper on my 12 year old appendix gelding. I also have a 2 year old American Miniature horse. I like LRHS because of all the different courses offered. My one goal for high school is to graduate with my Associates degrees as well as my high school diploma.