

My name is Samantha Marino and I am a junior. I am in journalism because I enjoy writing with a purpose. Some clubs that I am involved in are Speech and Debate and French Club. Outside of school, I am a dancer at Ovation. I like LRHS because of its wide range of academic opportunities that are provided to the students. By the end of this year, I am aiming to have passed all of my dual-enrollment classes.