

My name is Kara Mae Mathis and I am a senior here at Lakewood Ranch High school. I'm in journalism because I love writing and asking questions. Outside of school I like to cheer, hangout with my friends and listen to music. What I like about LRHS is all the people I meet and develop friendships with. My goal for high school is to make the most of it and have memories that I can remember forever.