

My name is Brady Roberts and I am a sophomore at LRHS. I joined journalism, because I would like to pursue a career in the field. At LRHS I am on the Junior Varsity basketball team. I like LRHS because it has a great basketball program for me to grow and become a better person and player. One goal I have is to play basketball all four years of high school