

Hello, I'm Jamie Tarriela, a junior in the journalism program at LRHS. I joined journalism because I felt that the skills that I could learn in the program would be useful after I graduate. Other than journalism, I'm also part of the school's orchestra program, and a member of Lakewood Leaders, a web based volunteering club, and I've been spending my summers volunteering at nearby hospitals. LRHS is a great school. I hope to finally earn a perfect straight A report card this year.
